Launched in September 2008, ABL Income Fund (ABL-IF) is managed by ABL Asset Management and operates as an open end fund for investors who seek competitive risk adjusted rate of return.

The investment committee (IC) is composed of five members which includes the CEO, Chief Investment Officer, Head of Research and two fund managers. Head of Risk attends meetings as an invitee though is not a voting member.

Limits have been defined in the operational policy in order to restrict fund's exposure to various types of investments and credit quality of the same. A quarter of assets of the fund must be deployed in cash and near cash instruments. Allowable exposure in Margin Trading System has been increased to a maximum 40% of net assets from 10% previously while maximum investment in TFCs has been increased from 25% to 75%.

Net assets of the fund stood at Rs. 3.7b (FY15: Rs. 2.0b) at end-FY16. Net assets showed a positive trend reaching a maximum Rs. 6.6b at end-May'16. The same however decreased due to redemptions by corporate investors for tax purposes.
